

Moms Clean Air Force in Ohio is a grassroots children's health organization comprised of 14,000 parents and involved citizens dedicated to reducing harmful carbon emissions, supporting action to curb climate change impacts, and promoting investment in clean energy and energy efficiency to improve health and reduce consumer costs. Our work is done through online activity, offline grassroots activism, and state and federal advocacy efforts.

MCAF in Ohio is working to expand our presence in the Greater Cleveland area. To that end, we are hiring a part-time Advocacy Coordinator increase the number of new supporters in targeted legislative districts, as well as continuing to encourage existing members to become more involved.

Responsibilities will include:

- Building online capacity to educate new and existing membership in targeted districts on importance of clean energy and climate action
- Utilizing online capacity to mobilize new and existing membership to deliver coordinated messages to elected officials, community groups, media
- Working directly with the Ohio Voter Activation Network to identify new members and provide coordination with partners (training will be available for this aspect)
- Developing and executing community engagement events in these targeted districts to move online activists into offline action
- Recognizing that there must be a concerted effort to reach across the political aisle to engage moms from all political persuasions

Candidates should possess the following qualifications:

- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Comfort level with online communication technology such as email alerts, Facebook, and Twitter
- Willingness to engage the public through coordinated events, attendance at community meetings, phone calls, etc.
- Willingness to travel and meet flexible schedule requirements
